Our schedule

Painting landscape, figure and still life; the Guanacaste area has many fine beaches, jungle scenery, and little towns to paint the local scene. During the week Jody will demonstrate basic painting techniques, quick study 'pochades' for capturing accurate color and light, how to use the quick study and good photo reference later in the studio to make a finished painting. She will also be on hand to offer individual help to students. A portable digital camera is recommended for capturing photo reference to take home.

Workshop Payment Policies - Please read carefully

Pre-payment is necessary to secure your space for Painting in Costa Rica.

10% discount for early registration is for workshop payment in full by January 1, 2011.

Because of the limited space and fixed costs incurred once a reservation has been made, payments are non-refundable.

If missing it is unavoidable you may transfer your reservation for this trip to another person.

If I must cancel the workshop, you will receive a full reimbursement within 30 days.

Lodging will be on a first paid, first served basis. If we fill lodging space, you have the option of staying nearby at a beautiful beachfront hotel at the best possible price.

Airfare is NOT included

You should receive a Paypal confirmation if you register online.

If you do not, please email me.

I will also send an email confirmation after you register, which may take several days. Please notify me if you haven't received one after one week of registering.
